OUR VISION

Oregon will be a model of excellence for the practice of health system pharmacy.

January 2025

Dear Potential Partner/Exhibitor,

The Board of Directors of the Oregon Society of Health-System Pharmacists invites you to participate as a Partner or Exhibitor for the OSHP Annual Seminar on April 25-27, 2025 at Sunriver Resort in Sunriver, Oregon and the Fall Seminar in November 2025 in Portland, Oregon.

We anticipate 300 pharmaceutical professionals will attend events, representing hospitals, home infusion, long term care, ambulatory care clinics, and retail pharmacies throughout Oregon and S.W. Washington. OSHP Members represent more than 40 hospitals in Oregon, many of which are clinical pharmacists and administrative leaders at their institutions. Both events are in accordance with ACCME guidelines, and the exhibit area will be in a separate location from the area where the educational sessions will take place.

Partnering and exhibiting in OSHP's seminars is also a great opportunity to meet one-on-one with OSHP pharmacists and pharmacy leaders. This is an excellent business opportunity and a way to show your support for local pharmacists. Don't miss this unique chance to introduce your products or services to this important buying group.

On behalf of the Industry Relations Committee and the OSHP Board of Directors, we would like to thank you in advance for your continued support of OSHP.

Sincerely,

ANNUAL SEMINAR

The Annual Seminar is a weekend long event held in the spring. This event provides 15+ hours of continuing education, Fun Run, poster session, awards banquet and a silent auction to benefit our student scholarship fund. There is an opportunity to visit an array of pharmaceutical exhibits in between sessions.

FALL SEMINAR

The Fall Seminar is a daylong event held in Portland. A variety of clinical education programs are offered that appeal to pharmacists practicing in ambulatory and hospital settings alike. There is also a student specific track, which provides information about residency programs and career opportunities for new graduates. Students can obtain specific information about residency programs in Oregon at the residency showcase exhibit. Of course throughout the day it is possible for attendees to spend time visiting an array of exhibits on display by local pharmaceutical representatives.

7 List account number(s) here (optional)

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
 - Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
 - Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
 - Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
 - Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
 - Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
 - Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
 - Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)
- Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.
